

Statement from Alyzza Martin at TheRighttoBeWrong.net concerning the outcome of Albert Snyder v. Westboro Baptist Church

November 2, 2007

I believe a judgment to the tune of $10.9 million was excessive; that it was designed not to address the grievance of one particular family, but rather to harass the Westboro Baptist Church into silence for all time. In this way, the court exceeded its authority and acted in a manner that runs contrary to the spirit of the US First Amendment.
