Jessel Aquing (6th gen) participating in Plywood Cup 2009
Thanks to everyone who helped make the race such a great success. The event had no shortage of maidens to rescue, mermaids pushing wooden boxes, and everyone's favorite PIRATES!

Oh yes there was some paddling too. Yes, I was attacked a Pirate... Bloody Pirates! I was in second place closing fast on the leader when I was attacked by a scuttled racer dressed like a pirate. And still finished to claim the third place prizes!

We also won "Best Design" for our skiff design. In total, the team claimed:

- "Third across"
- 4 bottles of wine
- $100 in Gift certificates to Granville Island Brewery
- "Best Design"
- 8 bottles of wine
- $80 in Gift certificates to Granville Island Brewery
- 4 Fleece blankets

Enjoy!

5th Generation of Martin Clan Members meet up in Toronto for a good time at "Southern Accent" restaurant in Mirvish Village. From Left to Right is Karen Richards, lovely and single (just putting it out there folks!), Brian Jahoor (lovely and not so single), Milan Sukunda, (the follically challenged husband to Jennifer Martin), Paula Jahoor (we won't make fun of her'cause she's already married to Brian), Jennifer Martin, (absolutely lovely if I do say so myself and I am) , Steve Richards (often confuses himself as Tupac) and Ann Richards (who has a thing for Tupac impersonators).
