A Cappella Tetrad

Twinkling Christmas lights, wondrous window displays, smiles and good cheer combined with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus were found on West Broadway in Vancouver's Kitsilano neighbourhood this Saturday afternoon.

Above the din of busy traffic and the jingle of cash drawers opening as they received payment for gifts soon to be wrapped and placed under a Christmas tree, were four celestial voices singing Christmas carols.

Over The Moon Quartet

As the four ladies sang a cappella, smiles instantly broadened. In return, granted, was long sustained applause from those near. This melodic afternoon surprise was sponsored by a number of West Broadway merchants as Thanks and Christmas cheer to regular and new patrons.

Who Are They?

Deb Hope, Pat Fry, Donna St.Germain, and Bev Hunter are the Over the Moon Quartet. Deb, a familiar face to many, is of course Global BC's Anchor – early news. Check out their video gallery. These ladies have remarkable voices that are a pleasure to hear.

Search for your home here. It's lot easier than other places I can't mention and you can see the home via Google street view. . Use Walkability to determine the availability of those neighbourhood services most important to you. Don't be shy, tell your friends who are looking to stop by and give it a whirl. They will love you even more. :)

If you would like something more personal that is specific to your budget and needs, give me a shout. Let's talk and I'll set you up with a custom search delivered daily to your in box.

Of course, if you got some questions I'm around for that too.

Thinking of Buying or Selling your Vancouver home? Put on a cup of coffee and let's talk.
