THE ENDORSEMENTS KEEP FLOWING IN ... "WE THINK CALIFORNIA DESERVES STEFAN JONASSON!"

"You are remarkable. In addition to your competencies in human resources, your knowledge of construction methods, your ability to address matters such as the ultimate meaning and purpose in life, and your spokespersonship for the American Beef Industry, you also have a firm grasp on issues of political strategy."

"Having worked for several Senators and Congress folk over the years, I have to say your resume and arguments for election are more than plausible; they are commendable! Sign me up to help collect funds. (Canada has an amnesty program, right?)."

"You are very persuasive. With regard to the first two letter thing...sure enough, I grabbed a pen, wrote down the abbreviation of California AND the first two letters of Canada, and darned if you weren't right...they are exactly, EXACTLY the same!"

"I am so impressed that I will vote for him and I am sure we can drum up lots of support in the rest of the country. He already has an edge over Arnold as Stefan has pointed out 2 things California needs (electricity and water) and Arnold has no idea what they need."
