JANUARY 2012

Happy New Year and Welcome Back!

We will be beginning to measure students for their June Recital costumes. All students planning to perform in the June show are measured. If for any reason you cannot perform with your class, please let teachers AND the office know immediately. If we are not notified we will assume all students are participating, and therefore responsible for costume fees. The recital will be held on Saturday, June 9, 2012 at the University Center Farquhar Auditorium.

A Note To Parents About Costume Deposits

The costume deposit is collected to put towards the costume costs for the June recital. Typically the final cost of the costumes will be $60 - $120 each. The costume deposit is non-refundable. As costumes are sized and made specifically for each student, you are responsible for the entire cost of the costume even in the regrettable circumstance that your child is unable to perform in the recital. Please note that this is a deposit only – any outstanding balance will be collected in early February. You will be notified and invoiced by mail.

Account Reminder

Please check the list on the office door regarding overdue accounts.

Please make sure your account is up to date as of January 2012, unfortunately no costume can be ordered for a student who has outstanding class fees or costume fees. Ask the office if you are unsure the status of your account. As stated in the registration manual, any student with an account, which is overdue by more than fourteen days for any reason and without communication with the office, will not be permitted to take classes.
