

SELECTED MSC WINTER COURSES

CRS/IDS-3901-002

Humanitarian Aid and Conflict: Do No Harm

This course will address the nature of contemporary armed conflict, the forms of humanitarian aid offered, and their relationship to each other.

Prerequisites: CRS-3220(3) or IDS-2171(3) or permission of instructor.

Tuesdays and Thursdays 1-2:15 pm

Instructor: Ruth Taronno

CRS-3220-050

Models for Conflict Transformation

This course examines historical and contemporary models for nonviolent conflict transformation.

Prerequisites: CRS-1200(6) or permission of instructor.

Co-requisite: CRS-3221(1.5)

Wednesdays, 6 - 9 pm

Instructor: Grace Kyoon

IDS -2185-003

Latin America/Caribbean Development Issues

This case study course will survey a subset of the theories, processes, policies and practice of development and underdevelopment in the diverse and dynamic context of Latin America and the Caribbean.

Tuesdays, 6-9 pm

Instructor: Mario Jimenez

MENNO SIMONS COLLEGE

520 Portage Ave. Winnipeg MB

www.mscollege.ca msc@uwinnipeg.ca

A College of CMU & Affiliated with UWinnipeg

For more information or to register,
log onto Web Advisor at www.uwinnipeg.ca